Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ)

Q1: What are the major turning points of the Medieval Period?

A1: Major turning points include the fall of the Western Roman Empire (traditionally marked as 476 CE), the rise of Charlemagne's Carolingian Empire, the Norman Conquest of England (1066 CE), the beginning and end of the Crusades (roughly 1096-1291 CE), the Black Death (1346-1353 CE), and the Hundred Years' War (1337-1453 CE). Each of these events significantly reshaped the political, social, and cultural landscape of Europe.

Q2: How did the feudal system work?

A2: Feudalism was a decentralized system of land ownership and obligation. Kings granted land (fiefs) to nobles (vassals) in exchange for military service and loyalty.
